- Computer-displayed mapboard of the battlefield of Waterloo
- Two-player and Computer-as-Opponent scenarios
- Cavalry, artillery, and infantry units
- Chateau Garrison Units
- Rules covering everything from demoralization to artillery bombardment & Prussian reinforcements!
- Playing time: 1 to 4 hours

The original battle of Waterloo was won and lost by the slimmest of margins. Now in this realistic computer simulation game, you can play Napoleon and direct his forces against the combined forces of England and Prussia.

By avoiding the military errors and by seizing the missed opportunities of the past, you can change history itself!
